PUZZLES FOR FREE ANNOUNCES 29 FREE PUZZLE BOOKS

CELEBRATE NATIONAL PUZZLE DAY – JANUARY 29

Puzzles to Play (www.puzzlestoplay.com) announces the celebration of National Puzzle Day on January 29th with a special online free puzzle book collection. It's no surprise humans have consumed more puzzles over the past 12 months while we have all stayed at home due to the current world health situation. Puzzles and games are perfect to pass the time and is a great family activity. There are so many puzzles to choose from: word search games, jigsaw puzzle, Rubik's Cube, Sudoku, crossword puzzles and others. Educators also use puzzles in classrooms for student learning too. Puzzles to Play is offering 29 FREE puzzle books in January, one free book for every day leading up to National Puzzle Day.

For over 20 years National Puzzle Day has encouraged the celebration of puzzles and games on this special day. The holiday started with an invite to classrooms to share puzzles. Kids were encouraged to send a self-addressed stamped envelope to get a free puzzle mailed to them directly. The free puzzles were moved online so people around the world could participate. In 2021, the celebration of National Puzzle Day continues with more free puzzles than ever! Classes, libraries, magazines, schools, families, and kids are ready to break out their favorite puzzles to play. Even adults can enjoy a puzzle or two!

Puzzle fans can enjoy our free National Puzzle Day puzzle activity printable packet OR download the 29 free puzzle books to play. Make copies and bring a pencil to play with your pals and make plans to play with friends on National Puzzle Day! Share your favorite puzzles online with the hashtags #puzzleday & #nationalpuzzleday.
